MINI Canada continues to support the Legacy of Motorsports

For the fourth year in a row, MINI Canada offers the Contingency Award Program to MINI Competitors in the Canadian Touring Car Championship and Targa Newfoundland.

Richmond Hill. MINI Canada has once again announced that it will be supporting motorsports by continuing with the Contingency Award Programs. Honouring MINI's strong rally history, the incentive program offers Canadians who race a MINI in the Canadian Touring Car Championship (CTCC) and the 2015 Targa Newfoundland the opportunity to be rewarded for their commitment to domestic motorsports. Each year from 2009 to 2014, a MINI driver has celebrated a 1st or 2nd placing in the Touring class, with two MINI drivers finishing in the top three individual standings in 2013. In 2014 it was a notable year for Canadian talent, as Michel Sallenbach was crowned Canadian Touring Car Champion in the Touring Class in his MINI Coupé, and the Hume/MacMullen team finished on top of the Grand Touring podium with their MINI GP at Targa Newfoundland.

For the CTCC, MINI Canada will pay contingency awards for 1st, 2nd and 3rd place finishes in the Touring and Super classes, while also rewarding championship titles.

"MINI is a fan favourite in CTCC. The cars and drivers are always competitive and fun to watch. It will be thrilling to see them try to repeat another CTCC championship," stated John Bondar, President of CTCC. "We are grateful for the support that MINI Canada provides through this wonderful contingency program."

For Targa Newfoundland, MINI Canada will have a contingency payout structure designed to reward a first place finish in the Open, Modern, and Grand Touring classes.

"Motorsports is an important pillar for MINI. The history of the brand, and its continued success in modern day competitions such as the Dakar Rally are indicative of the performance oriented products we pride ourselves on. The Contingency Award Program encourages and rewards the skilled drivers of the CTCC and Targa Newfoundland to take to the track in one of our exciting vehicles," said Adam Shaver, Director of MINI Canada.

- (vi) Super class vehicle must be a 2014 MINI 3 door (F56) or newer to qualify for the contingency program.
- (vii) For a Super or Touring Championship win, the money paid out will be based on the vehicle model year that the driver raced in the majority of his/her races in 2015.
- (viii) Complies in all respects with these Terms and Conditions.

2. CONTINGENCY PAYOUT CLAIMS

ALL CLAIMS UNDER THE PROGRAM MUST BE RECEIVED WITHIN FOUR (4) WEEKS OF THE APPLICABLE QUALIFYING RACE TO BE ELIGIBLE. To qualify, email MINI Canada at MINIMotorsport@MINI.ca (the “Program Email”) with all of the following information:

- (i) Your full name, mailing address, telephone number and email address;
- (ii) Name, location, date and time of the Qualifying Race;
- (iii) The place you finished in the Race, including the URL to official results;
- (iv) The dollar amount being claimed (see Section 4 below);
- (v) The Vehicle Identification Number of the winning vehicle; and
- (vi) Photographs of team trailers, racecar(s) and any other significant racing equipment that references “MINI.CA”

Failure to provide proof of eligibility, to complete or provide MINI Canada any further documentation reasonably required by MINI Canada within the time provided may void any contingency payout claim.

Multiple Vehicles with Single Driver: Teams with multiple vehicles can claim more than one contingency payout per Qualifying Race. For example, if a team competes using three (3) MINIs with three (3) different drivers and finishes in first, second and third place, each driver is eligible to receive one contingency payout (for first, second and third place, respectively). The only points used in determining the year-end champion will be that of the sanctioning body of each series.

Multiple Drivers: Only one (1) driver per vehicle is eligible for receipt of a contingency payout. A team of multiple drivers in a single vehicle must assign one (1) representative who will be eligible to claim the contingency payout for the benefit of the team and will be responsible for distribution of the payout among team members, as applicable. MINI Canada is not responsible for disputes between team members. For instance, if you have a team of six (6) drivers racing two (2) MINIs and they finish in first and second place, only the two (2) assigned representatives may claim their respective contingency payouts. If you have three (3) drivers racing one (1) vehicle and the team finishes in first place, only the one (1) assigned representative will be entitled to receive a contingency payout.

BY SUBMITTING A CLAIM, YOU AGREE TO BE BOUND BY THESE TERMS AND CONDITIONS AND THE DECISIONS OF MINI CANADA WHICH ARE FINAL AND BINDING IN ALL RESPECTS. EACH CLAIMANT FURTHER REPRESENTS AND WARRANTS THAT S/HE:

- (i) Is the holder of a current competition license as required by the Qualifying Race organizers and sanctioning bodies for participation in their respective Races;
